KEYSTONE CHURCH

The Keystone Community Sunday School is held at the home of Mr. A. L. Parsons, 230 Maylor avenue, just north of Ocean avenue. Keystone promises to be a real success and was full to overflowing last Sunday so that they have to plan for an enlargement to shelter Keystone babies and bibles and the beautiful parlor organ given by Mr. G. Wagoner also of Keystone.

These things have greatly comforted the hearts of D. M. Pearson the superintendent and organizer and his able helper Mr. Guest and also the organist Mrs. Sinelara.

While all Keystone rejoices that the day has come when all mankind, white or black, old or young, are singing one song to one Father God, our Savior Jesus Christ with one Bible in One Hope.

This is indeed the "Healing" of our land. We have already a large Bible class as all are welcome.

We need teachers for little children and can use some seats for our new home. We are especially grateful to the kindly brothers of the Torrance Transfer Co. who have so freely given us their aid to make these things prosper at this time. Kindly remember the place and time, 3 p. m. "Help us to build each other up." A. L. Parsons

HUNDREDS SUFFER FROM HYDROPHOBIA

Rabies Reported All Around Us—Wonder If They're Here

Rabies in dogs shows no sign of abatement despite the strenuous efforts of the Health Department, which has enlarged its force to meet the emergency. Two inspectors at large cover the country territory, while in Belyvedre, where there have been the greatest number of cases, two dog-catchers have been employed and a pound established.

Since the present outbreak there have been 55 dogs suspected of rabies which have been held for observation, and of this number 28 proved to be positive or afflicted.

The following districts have had one or two cases of rabies: Alhambra, Azusa, Artesia, Burbank, Calabasas, Downey, El Monte, Gardena, Glendale, Glendora, Hermosa, Monterey Park Montebello, Pomona, San Gabriel, Sherman, So. Pasadena, Universal City, Whittier and Walnut Park; Belvedere had 5 out of 25 suspected cases. This does not take into account many of the incorporated cities of the county which do not report through the County Health Office.

In Glendora a different type of the disease, known as dumb rabies, manifested itself in a pet ox terrier. He was nervous and seemed to avoid people but before being confined he had bitten a man, two children and a cow.

It is just about a month ago that this community was horrified by the death of a young man in the County Hospital from rabies and this in spite of the fact that treatment was given in time.

Pasadena has had several cases of rabies. Last month two little boys in that city were attacked by a strange dog. In less than a week five persons were bitten and some of the dogs were found to have been suffering from rabies. The situation became so serious that the humane society started a campaign to round up all unmuzzled dogs.

A great many reports are of people bitten by stray dogs. These animals wander about and are liable to bite other dogs before attacking a human being thus spreading the disease before it is discovered.

The State, County and various cities, realizing the menace, have been prompt to enact legislation covering the matter. Muzzling ordinances have been adopted, and

Torrance Toggery First Annual Sale

"One year old tomorrow"—Torrance Toggery, which announces through a big advertisement in this issue that they are remembering the occasion by staging their first annual sale, St Rappaport, manager, says this will be repeated every year, and that each year, like 1922, there many friends and customers who have been responsible for their success will be generously remembrd by giving them big reductions in Hart Schaffner & Marx suits and Walk-Over shoes, both brands becoming a by-word the world over.

Real values at real bargains are two of the paramount ideas that prompted the management to carry the sale on. It will last for eight days—eight days of real bargains and everyone is cordially invited to come and learn the true motives back of this sale.

Rahm & Son have opened headquarters in Redondo Beach. The mechanics here will be in charge of the Torrance end of the business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, of Centralia, Washington, are here visiting their parents, Farley Johnson, of Cota avenue. They expect to make their home in Torrance.

At a recent meeting of the State Veterinarian Society the seriousness of the rabies situation in Los Angeles county was admitted and methods towards its control planned. Working along public health lines, the acknowledged way is to establish quarantine in districts where the disease exists. This prevents the spread. People are educated to the value of quarantine in contagious diseases. They realize the necessity for such action and submit to enforced stay at home, loss of school for the children, and other inconveniences, for the general welfare.

After all, the success of a measure depends on the co-operation of the citizens. Foolish sentiment should not be allowed to take the place of common sense. The muzzle is a small inconvenience to a dog but of immeasurable good in protecting people, especially children, who are prone to fondle and play with animals.

Owners of dogs in quarantine districts who object to muzzling them may keep them in an inclosure. The owner is bound to see that the dog is tied or kept in, otherwise such owner is violating the law and cannot complain if the dog is shot.

It might be pertinent to remind parents to caution their children against playing with strange dogs or even with the family pet if it is irritable.

Judging by the situation today it will be four or five months before the work along this line is completed. Meanwhile, anyone seeing a dog which is acting strange or sick should report it at once to the Health Officer.

Rabies, or hydrophobia, is found mostly among dogs but cats and even cows are attacked by it, and there is a supposition that the present outbreak started among the coyotes. There are different types of the disease, the animal sometimes being paralyzed and oftener violent. A general symptom in the early stages is extreme nervousness and irritability.

"Silent Years" Superb Picture

An all-star cast in one of L. J. Gasnier's greatest productions, "Silent Years," gives a brilliant performance in this R-C Pictures release on the screen of the Torrance Theatre. Big names shine in the cast. Besides being important players, they are also players of great ability, for the story, based on the novel, "Mam'selle Jo," by Harriet Comstock, requires the very best kind of acting in its many dramatic climaxes. Among the players are Pauline Starke, one of the best known leading of the day; Rose Dione, noted French dramatic star, who is winning a reputation on the screen; Tully Marshall, George M'Daniel, George Seigman, Will Jim Hutton, Jack Mower, Ruth King, Kate Toncray, Lillian Rambeau, Jean O'Rourke and Ruth Ashby.

Governor William D. Stephens

in announcing his candidacy SAYS:

WILLIAM D. STEPHENS
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

More vital to the state or the nation than the personal aspirations of any man, is the maintenance of a system of government consonant with the ideals and interests of the people.

HITS REACTIONARIES

Realizing that, because of reactionary activities, a change or administration at this time would mean a complete change in the character of government that this state has endorsed and ratified on many occasions, I hereby submit my candidacy for re-election as governor of the state of California.

The greatest good to the greatest number, the maintenance of law and order, and the progressive development of the human and material interests of the state have been the guiding principles of my administration of the state's affairs, and of the legislation I have approved.

This has been evidenced in our agricultural progress, in our educational expansion, in our extension of child welfare work, and in our anti-alien legislation, in our highway development, in our soldier welfare program, in our legislative support of national constitutional prohibition, in our equalization of taxes to the end that public service corporations should pay their just proportion in harmony with the demand of our state constitution, in our increased efficiency and through administration reorganization and consolidation, and in other measures upon which I am prepared to stand, as an evidence of good faith and a guaranty of the continuation of progressive policies in this state.

POINTS TO EXPENSES

Notwithstanding the greatest increase in the cost of living that the nation has ever experienced, our state expenditures have been held to a strictly conservative basis in all our normal administrative functions. Only in the educational and constructive activities has there been any marked increase, and the larger part of this advance was necessitated by the direct vote of the people, whose right it is to determine how much money shall be used and for what purpose.

Even including these expanding activities, California's state government has increased its expenses less proportionately than any other big business in the state, and this increase has gone into developments which are vital to the future economic and business welfare.

In California after the war, reactionary interests sought to control the legislature and to weaken the administration, but a subtle and organized movement, which was as dangerous to the economic welfare and democratic government of our people as any corporate control that was ever exercised in the history of the state, but fortunately in battling against these forces the people were victorious.

GAUNTLET THROWN DOWN

I am fully aware that these selfish interests have thrown down the gauntlet in the coming election, and I feel called upon to fight again for the maintenance of government for the people by the people.

The state's future is bright with promise. The rapidity of our progress and the safety of our institutions demand a government in which are combined a courage to meet reactionary propaganda, and understanding of economic conditions, a cautious attitude toward increasing expenditures, a practical sympathy for the human welfare of our people and a constructive policy of state development. To meet these demands I pledge my best endeavors.

WILLIAM D. STEPHENS.
